

SAINT MARTIN OF TOURS

Holy Spirit Shine on Me

Notes from Mrs. Marshall

First Friday, October 5th began with a special All School Mass as we celebrated with all mothers in honor of the month of Mary. Mass was followed by the 5-8th grade students forming a living rosary inside the church as they lead the community in praying the rosary. The mothers gathered in Runge Hall for a reception served by the 8th grade girls. Thanks to all the mothers who were able to join us on this special day.

Seventh and Eighth Grade Confirmation students from St. Martin of Tours together with their parents will attend the 9:00

A.M. Mass on Sunday, October 28, 2007 at St. Martin of Tours to participate in the Rite of Enrollment. They announce their intention to be enrolled to prepare for the Sacrament of Confirmation. All are invited to attend this special Mass. If you are unable to attend please remember the Confirmation Candidates and their families in your prayers. Please gather for coffee and donuts following the Mass in Runge Hall.

Mrs. Czmarko arranged a Music Field Trip to the Sheldon Concert Hall this past Thursday where students enjoyed the lively and creative performance of "Folk Music in the Melting Pot" which featured Charlie Pfeiffer, John Higgins, Blake Travis, and Sandy Weltman. They performed folk music of America which included Southern Spirituals, Colonial-era ballads, and cowboy and folk songs of the 20th century. Thanks Mrs. Czmarko for this incredible Music class!

Parish Board of Education Meeting is scheduled for Monday, Oct. 15th at 7PM. This is an open meeting and all are invited to attend. A representative from TJ Pizza will be present with samples. Please look at the Friday Folder on the website as it is in color thanks to the creative accents added by Mrs. Scheipeter.

Meet the Teacher Ms. Sarah Klumb is our second grade teacher. She received a Bachelor of Arts Degree in Early Childhood education from Webster University where she participated in the internationally acclaimed early childhood education programs of Reggio Emilia, Italy as part of a student and professor study group. Ms. Klumb continues to tutor at St. Louis All-Stars Education Center. As part of Social Studies her class designed their community on the wall outside their class. What a creative way to incorporate learning. Welcome Ms. Klumb!

St. Martin of Tours Parish Used Book Sale

Plan some time during the weekend of October 20/21 to come by (and come buy) the first St. Martin of Tours Used Book Sale in Runge Hall. Saturday from 9-4 and Sunday from 12-3. Our generous parishioners have donated close to 10,000 books, movies, CDs, puzzles, magazines, records, and even a few computer games. All bargain priced. You can find fiction, humor, reference, sports, and much more. For those interested in the finer things, some very special items have been donated. Just to describe a few of these items - there are many books autographed by their authors, pristine comic-type collectibles, and antique, leather bound tomes of some wonderful classics.

Lost and Found - There are many unclaimed items, such as lunch boxes, water bottles, and SMT sweatshirts in the Lost and Found bin in the school office. Please stop by and take a look if you are missing items. Remember to put a name on all clothing tags and student items.

SMT Sweatshirts are currently in-stock at Catholic Supply on Chippewa.
